

Dear {{Salutation or 'friend'}},

Compassion & Choices is proud to continuously advocate for improved legislation surrounding medical aid- in-dying options and access nationwide. In August of this year, updates to the Colorado End-of-Life Options Act went into effect. Join us on Tuesday, October 15, at 5 p.m. MT for a discussion about what this means for Colorado healthcare professionals.

The discussion will be led by Director of Clinical Advocacy Ashley Fry, DNP, and End-of-Life Options Colorado President Barbara Morris, MD.

Significant changes include:

- Advanced practice registered nurses (APRNs) may now serve as the attending and consulting providers.
- The waiting period was reduced from 15 days to seven days.
- The waiting period can be waived in certain circumstances.

This webinar is designed for Colorado APRNs, nurses and other healthcare professionals to learn more about the updated law. This activity has been submitted to the Colorado Nurses Association for approval to award contact hours. The Colorado Nurses Association is accredited as an approver of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

Thank You,

Dear {{Salutation or 'friend'}},

Thank you for joining Compassion & Choices and End of Life Options Colorado for our webinar Medical Aid in Dying: Updates to the Colorado End of Life Options Act & Clinical Considerations.

This webinar, designed for Colorado APRNs and other healthcare professionals, reviewed the substantial updates to the End-of-Life Options Act that went into effect in August 2024.

If you would like to rewatch the webinar or couldn't attend, you can view the recorded discussion here. You can also find answers to some of the questions and comments here. Nurses, please note that NCPD credit can only be obtained if you attended the live session on 10/15. Complete the required quiz for your NCPD certificate here.

Thank you for your ongoing support in our mission to achieve healthcare equity for all. I look forward to our future collaborations.

With Gratitude,

Ashley D. Fry, DNP, APN, AGACNP-BC, ACHPN
